

GAGAN GOEL RECOGNISED AT THE PRESTIGIOUS FORBES MIDDLE EAST AWARDS

Mr Gagan Goel, Chairman and Managing Director of Essel Group ME (EGME), has been named as one of Forbes Middle East's Top 100 Indian Business Owners In The Arab World in 2017. This award is presented annually and is based on a number of company related criteria, including business revenue and employment impact. Mr Goel commented: "I am honoured to receive this prestigious award on behalf of everyone at Essel Group ME. It is testament to the hard work and dedication of our talented team and serves as recognition of the company's operational and financial progress to date."

Mr Goel founded EGME in June 2015, and in less than two years has grown it into a company with $2.4 billion of assets valuation. EGME's operations include 11 oil and gas projects, three potash assets, Morgan Gatsby, its leading financial services business, as well as 4 iron ore mines, relief and humanitarian supplies to United Nations across the globe.
